

XE295 ELLIPTICAL

Experience a new level of fitness with the Spirit XE295 Elliptical. Its 7.5" ClearView™ black backlit console LCD display with a convenient tablet holder lets you stay entertained and connected while you work out. The built-in USB charging port ensures your devices stay powered. The XE295's Bluetooth function has compatibility with the Spirit+ App and other 3rd party apps. Track your heart health conveniently with a compatible wireless Bluetooth or 5kHz heart rate monitor. Don't have a wireless heart rate monitor? Use the included hand pulse heart rate sensors to read your heart rate in real time. The 30 lb flywheel ensures a smooth workout, and with 20 levels of resistance, so you'll always find the perfect challenge. Choose your workout program including Manual, Hill, Fat Burn, Cardio, Strength, HIIT, and more. The 3 adjustable angles on the pedals, and Child Safety Lock make this elliptical safe and comfortable to use.
